MIGRANT VICTIM SUPPORT

24-hour Victim Support Helpline: 083 008 6391

Have you been a victim of crime?

A ‘victim’ means: a person who has suffered harm, including physical, mental or emotional harm or economic loss, which was directly caused by a criminal offence.

Our service is for all victims of crime, including but not limited to; domestic abuse, sexual crime, gender-based violence, human trafficking (sexual exploitation, enforced labour, enforced criminality), hate crime, racism, FGM, fraud, burglary, harassment, cybercrime, homicide, etc.

- Provide information on victims’ rights, redress options and criminal proceedings.
- Provide specialised psycho-social and integration supports to migrant victims of crime.
- Accompaniment to report crimes to the Gardaí.
- Provide court accompaniment.
- Accompaniment at integration-related appointments as needed.
- Referral to and from mainstream support services.
- Immigration and residency application assistance.

This project is supported by the Department of Justice

Doras
PROMOTING & PROTECTING HUMAN RIGHTS

An Roinn Dlí agus Cirt
Department of Justice